

Allowing all the media in our area to be owned by one company undermines fair representation of the news and democratic, healthy debate. Allowing this to happen erodes away at the democracy we all love and cherish in the U.S.